Who are the SEAS Knights of Columbus?

- SEAS Knights are a small but growing group of SEAS men whose goal is to support Father Tom, our parish, our families and our local community through various social and charitable events.
- Our activities are supported by and coordinated with Father Tom and the SEAS staff to ensure alignment with SEAS goals.
- Brian Wolf and Dan McCurrie are co-directors for the SEAS Knights group. A number of our members hold positions on Centennial Council Committees.
- We are members of the Knights Centennial Council #7985 based out of St. John Neumann Church in Irvine. This provides our SEAS members the opportunity to be involved at the Council level, parish level, or both as their time and interest allows.
